Recreation Programs that Work for At-Risk Youth

Edited by Peter A. Witt and John L. Crompton

The Challenge of Shaping the Future
Recreation Programs that Work for At-Risk Youth:

The Challenge of Shaping the Future

Edited by
Peter A. Witt and John L. Crompton

Venture Publishing, Inc.
State College, Pennsylvania
Table of Contents

Section I  Introduction and Overview ............................................... 1

1. Background and Organization of the Book .............................................. 3
2. Major Themes Emerging from the Case Studies ...................................... 7

Section II  Mature Full-Spectrum Programs ................................... 35

3. Youth Diversion Program in Commerce, California .............................. 37
4. Project S.A.Y. (Save-A-Youth) in Anaheim, California .......................... 47
5. Integrated Approach to Services for Children and Youth in Minneapolis, Minnesota .................................................................. 57
6. City Streets/At-Risk Youth Division in Phoenix, Arizona .................. 69
7. The Real Deal: The Evolution of Seattle, Washington's,
   At-Risk Youth Program ................................................................... 81

Section III  Organizing the Community ........................................ 95

8. Youth Summits: Exploring Collaboration to Maximize
   Opportunities for At-Risk Youth in Portland, Oregon .......................... 97
9. Urban Initiatives: A University/Community Partnership
   in North Philadelphia, Pennsylvania ................................................ 107
10. Winton Hills Teen Violence Prevention in Cincinnati,
    Ohio .......................................................................................... 113
11. Project Hope in Scottsdale, Arizona .................................................. 123
12. Youth 2000: The Challenge of Changing Mentalities in Montreal, Quebec, Canada ................................................................ 133

Section IV  It's a Matter of Time .................................................. 141

After-school Programs

    Education in North Miami, Florida .................................................. 143
14. Youth After-hours Program in Longview and Kelso,
    Washington ................................................................................ 151
Table of Contents

15. Multiple Strategies for Reaching At-Risk Youth Used by the Madison, Wisconsin, School/Community Recreation Department .......................................................... 161

16. The Sunnyvale Teen Express Program (STEP) in Sunnyvale, California .......................................................... 171

17. The Good Life Mentoring Project in Metropolitan Dade County, Florida .......................................................... 177

18. The Recreation Plus Program in Houston, Texas .......................... 183

Summer Programs

19. Project Phoenix in Raleigh, North Carolina ........................................... 187

20. The Summer Search and PRYDE Programs in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma .................................................. 195

21. Summer Fun in Wichita, Kansas ........................................................... 201

22. Kids' Kamp in Indianapolis, Indiana ................................................... 207

Both After-school and Summer Programs

23. After-school and Summer Latchkey Programs in Corpus Christi, Texas .................................................. 211

24. KIDCO After-school and Summer Recreation Program in Tucson, Arizona ................................................ 217

Evening and Late-Night Programs

25. Approach to Gang Prevention and Intervention in Fort Worth, Texas .................................................. 229

26. Mayor's Night Hoops in Kansas City, Missouri ........................................... 237

27. A Collaborative Public/Private Street Outreach Partnership in Olympia, Washington ...................... 245

Section V Targeted Settings

28. Youth Recreation Programs at Housing Sites in Boulder, Colorado .................................................. 253

29. Public Housing Drug Elimination Program in Columbus, Mississippi .................................................. 261

30. Beyond School: A Pilot Project in Calgary, Alberta, Canada .................................................. 267
Section VI Innovative Focused Programs .............................................. 273

31. The Oakland Summer Performing Arts Day Camp (OPAC) in Oakland, California .................................................. 275
32. Northern Fly-In Sports Camps Inc. in Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada ................................................................. 287
33. Outdoor Adventures: A Natural High in Tacoma, Washington .............................................................................. 295
34. National Park Service Programs in Washington, District of Columbia .................................................................... 301
35. Building "the Getaway"—Teen Playground in Rockford, Illinois ........................................................................ 305
36. Youth-In-Action in Lebanon, New Hampshire ....................................................................................................... 313
37. Parks Department’s Summer Jobs Program in Tampa, Florida .................................................................................. 327
38. Drug Free Youth In Touch (D*FY*IT) in Joliet, Illinois ......................................................................................... 331

Section VII Europe and Africa ............................................................................. 335

39. At-Risk Youth Programs in South Africa .................................................................................................................... 337
40. Rescuing Young Offenders with Recreation Programs in the United Kingdom ......................................................... 343

Appendix List of Colloquium Presenters ............................................................................. 351